Views and opinions expressed are as of the date of this podcast recording, are for informational purposes only, and do not constitute a recommendation by Goldman Sachs Asset Management to buy, sell, or hold any security, including any such reference to a specific company and or security nor is it an endorsement of said company or security. Views and opinions should not be construed as investment advice.

This podcast recording includes reference to Innovator Capital Management (Innovator). Goldman Sachs previously announced it has entered into an agreement to acquire Innovator. While the transaction has not yet closed it is expected to close in the second quarter of 2026, subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions.

Content discussed is designed for financial adviser use – the intended audience is not the retail end-investor.

Investments made pursuant to model portfolio allocations in underlying funds involve substantial risks and conflicts of interest and could result in the loss of all or a substantial portion of the assets invested pursuant to the model allocations. Diversification does not protect an investor from market risk and does not ensure a profit.
