PRODUCT SUITABILITY

WHO IS THE PRODUCT SUITABLE FOR?

- The Portfolio is only suitable for investors who:
  - seek capital appreciation with no need for income;
  - seek exposure to a thematic and concentrated global portfolio that invests in companies that have the potential to be beneficiaries of one or more key themes associated with evolving trends in international relations and their impact on the economic security of Developed Markets; and
  - are comfortable that the Portfolio may generate potentially higher returns but also increased level of risk than a more diversified global equity portfolio.

In addition, the Fund is only suitable for investors who are able to accept the product specific risks of the Fund.

You should consult your Singapore Distributor or financial adviser if in doubt whether this product is suitable for you.

Further Information
Refer to the "Product Suitability" section in Paragraph 6.1 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on product suitability.

KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its dividends or coupons (if any) may rise or fall. The following risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment and your principal may be at risk.	Refer to the “Risk Factors” section in Paragraph 8 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on the risk of the product.
Market and Credit Risks

<sup>5</sup> Only accumulating share classes are available in respect of the Portfolio as at 20 September 2024. Other Share Classes may be subsequently available and you should contact your Singapore Distributor for a list of Share Classes in the Portfolio which are available to you.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Market risk – the value of assets in the Portfolio is typically dictated by a number of factors, including political, market and general economic conditions. Deterioration or uncertainty regarding any of these conditions may result in declines in the market values of actual or potential investments, and/or increased illiquidity of investments.</li><li>• Exchange rate risk – changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives.</li><li>• Counterparty risk – a party that the Portfolio transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses.</li></ul>
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Portfolio may not always find another party willing to purchase an asset that the Portfolio wants to sell which could impact the Portfolio’s ability to meet redemption requests on demand.</li></ul>
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Equity risk – the Portfolio mostly invests in shares and similar instruments which typically experience higher levels of price fluctuations than fixed income securities.</li><li>• Concentration risk – this is a concentrated asset strategy that is likely to exhibit significantly greater fluctuations in asset values than a broad investment in a wide range of shares of companies.</li><li>• Operational risk – material losses to the Portfolio may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls.</li><li>• Custodian risk – insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or sub-custodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Portfolio’s assets can result in loss to the Portfolio.</li><li>• Derivatives risk – derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested.</li><li>• Emerging markets risk – emerging markets are likely to bear higher risk due to lower liquidity and possible lack of adequate financial, legal, social, political and economic structures, protection and stability as well as uncertain tax positions.</li><li>• Health Care sector risk – investments in health care companies may be impacted by a number of sector-specific factors and events, including but not limited to, rapid technological advancements, government policies and regulations, taxes, and supply changes.</li></ul>
